

1972, prior to the M4

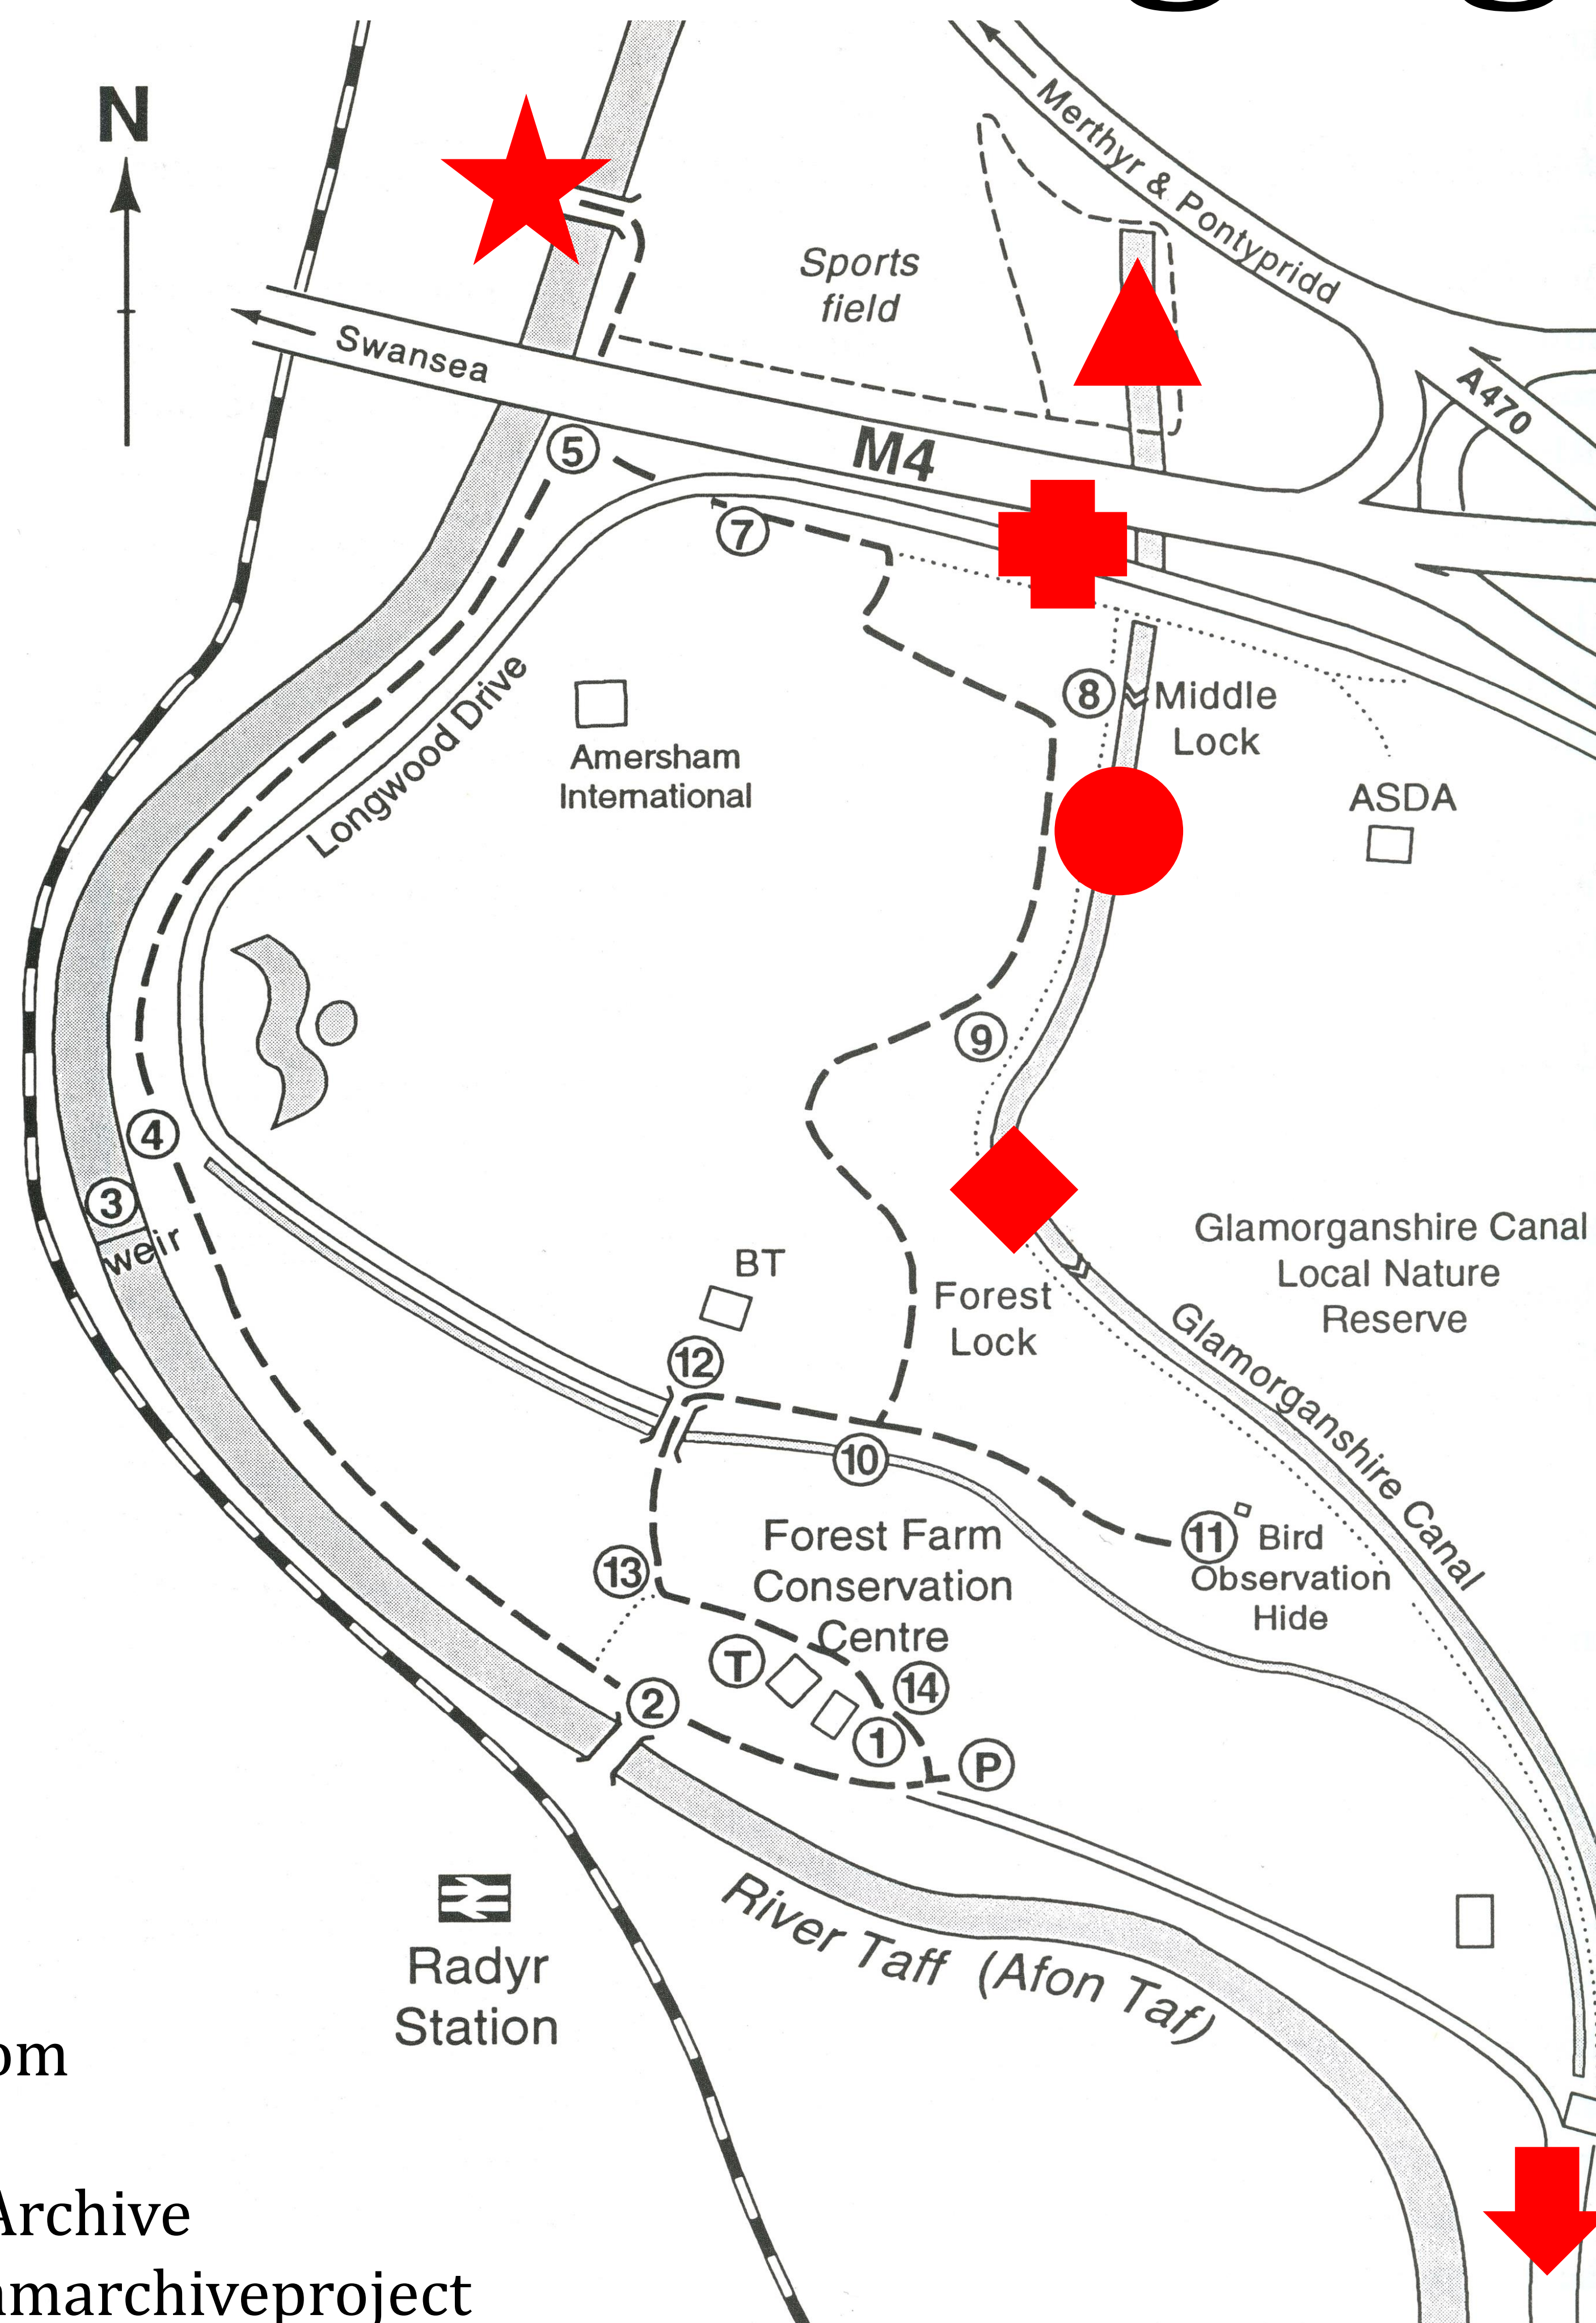

The development of Longwood Drive & M4 in 1973, 1977 & how it looks in 2017

North, pre-M4 & A470, to Castell Coch (above) & Walnut Tree Quarry (right)

The changing landscape of Forest Farm

Mary Gillham spent many hours in Forest Farm and was passionate about its value to nature as well as an urban green space.

Her work with the Cardiff Naturalists' Society and Cardiff University was instrumental in getting the area protected as an important nature reserve.

The Mary Gillham Archive Project is working to celebrate the life of this dedicated naturalist and ensure her great work is recognised.

Forest lock repairs in 1972 & the same location in 2017

Canal during 1965 drought, before remedial work!

Melingriffith pump in 1972

Mary Gillham Archive Project.

Supported by The National Lottery through the Heritage Lottery Fund

Cefnogydd gan Y Loteri Genedlaethol trwy Gronfa Dreftadaeth y Loteri

marygillhamarchiveproject.com
twitter.com/gillhamarchives
facebook.com/MaryGillhamArchive
flickr.com/photos/marygillhamarchiveproject